

My World

The glittered stars pleasant with shine
And the grass steady grows.
Both of these sprout on the clock's long vine
And move from life's big blows.
The wind taps and twirls
The flower's stem grows with life.
The beautiful colors blend and swirl
A world with colors and no strife.
The raindrops spin across the skyscrapers.
Happiness shines upon this place.
The beauty sparks out of the capers.
The snow fills the ground like fluffy yarn and lace.
