

MARC PASSENGER CODE OF CONDUCT

- For your safety, passengers must be on the proper platform prior to the train's arrival. Passengers who cross in front of, or behind the train while it is at the station will be denied boarding.
- The conductor is in charge of the train. Follow his or her instructions while riding any MARC train. Please inform the conductor of any service problems you may experience or if you need assistance prior to arriving at your destination.
- Passengers must have tickets out for inspection or collection by any authorized MARC representative. Tickets may be inspected more than once during a trip.
- Improper fare, improper conduct, intoxication, or offensive actions will not be tolerated. Passengers displaying any of these behaviors will not be transported, and will be asked to leave the train.
- Please listen to announcements as they are made for your safety and convenience. Not all doors open at every station. Listen for announcements regarding which doors will open.
- Please do not stand in the aisles when seats are available. Standing is never permitted on stairs or in vestibules. Conductors will direct standing passengers to seats when available.
- No seats are reserved on MARC trains. Please do not inconvenience others by blocking or holding seats with personal items. Please do not place your feet on the seats.

Have a backup plan to get to Union Station!

It's the five words all MARC passengers dread to hear: "Delays on the Red Line". The following Metrobus routes all serve Union Station and come from various points in the city; download the schedules at www.wmata.com

96 – Woodley Park – Adams Morgan – U Street – Union Station

D6 – Dupont Circle – Farragut North and West (K Street) – Metro Center (E Street) – Judiciary Square – Union Station

X1 – Foggy Bottom – Federal Triangle – North Capitol and Massachusetts Avenue (1 block from Union Station)

REMEMBER: MARC weekly or Monthly passes are good for complementary travel on all Washington Metrobuses.

In addition, the DC Circulator www.dccirculator.com provides three routes serving Union Station. Please note that MARC passes are not honored on the DC Circulator; the fare is $1.00 exact change or SmarTrip card.
