

MARC

In anticipation of passengers leaving work early on Friday, August 29, the following modifications to MARC service will be in effect. If a train is not listed below, it will operate as scheduled.

Penn Line:

- Starting with Train 520 (12:20pm departure from Union Station), trains will operate with the larger rush hour sets of equipment.
- The Penn Line will operate regularly-scheduled Saturday and Sunday service on August 30 and 31.

Camden Line:

- There will be a 2:00pm departure from Union Station making all stops to Camden Station.
- In order to operate this special departure, Train 850 (5:22pm departure from Union Station) will not operate.
- Train 852 (5:53pm departure from Union Station) will make all stops between Washington and Camden Station. Riverdale, College Park, Greenbelt, Jessup and St. Denis will be flag stops. Passengers must inform the Conductor that they want to detrain or be on the platform and visible to the engineer or the train will not stop.

Brunswick Line:

- Earlier trains will operate with added capacity.
- Train 873 (3:30pm departure) will operate through to Harpers Ferry, Duffields and Martinsburg.
- Train 875 (4:25pm departure) will terminate at Brunswick. PanTran connecting buses will meet the train at Brunswick for West Virginia stops. Please note that seating capacity on the buses is limited.

There is no MARC Service on any route on Monday, September 1 in observance of Labor Day.

The staff of the MARC Train Service wishes you a SAFE and happy Labor Day holiday and thanks you for your patronage.