MARC Penn Line Inauguration Day 2017

Important Customer Information

Thank you for choosing MARC Train to travel to Washington, DC for the Inauguration festivities. Please note that MARC Train is operating a special schedule (printed on the other side of this flyer) and is not operating a regular weekday schedule. All MARC Trains are unreserved, which means that they operate on a first-come, first-served basis and seating is not guaranteed. When trains reach a safe capacity, boarding will be stopped and passengers will be required to wait for the next train.

Fares

There are two options for passengers riding MARC Train on Friday, January 20:

- Purchase regular MARC one-way tickets. Round trip fares are $16 from Baltimore and West Baltimore, $14 from Halethorpe and BWI Airport, and $12 from Odenton. Please purchase two one-way tickets at the beginning of your trip (MARC does not sell round trip tickets). Tickets may be purchased from a ticket agent at Penn Station, BWI Airport, and Odenton with cash or credit, from the ticket machine at Halethorpe with credit only, and on board the train from the conductor at West Baltimore with cash only.
- MARC weekly and monthly multi-ride tickets will be honored.

Policies

- All transportation providers will be operating under a heightened security alert. Remember the MTA's safety campaign slogan: "If You See Something, Say Something!" Notify your conductor of any unusual occurrences or unattended luggage. You may also call the MTA Police at 410-454-7720.
- Disorderly or disruptive behavior is not tolerated on board any MARC Train. Passengers exhibiting such behavior will be removed from the train at the next station and will be denied transportation on any MARC Train for the remainder of the day.
- Please refer to the MARC Riders Guide, available online or at MARC stations, for a full list of MARC Train policies.

Thank you for riding MARC Train and we hope you enjoy your trip.
